

Hosting A PSCOTT Lifestyle Party

For Men and Women

Host FAQ's

1. Do I deliver all the orders to my party guests afterwards?

No. Products are available at the time of the party.

2. How long does a typical party last?

About 2 to 3 hours.

3. What do I need to do as a host?

Simply make a guest list and invite your family and friends to attend in your home, church, community center, etc. The day of the party, prepare some simple beverages and snacks and I will do the rest.

4. What is a PSCOTT Lifestyle Party?

It is a product showcase party and the perfect opportunity to invite all your friends over in order to try a variety of gifts and different beauty and skin care products.

5. What's involved in hosting a party?

- We are not asking you or your guests to become a sales representative. There are no introductory startup fees or need for business startup kit(s).
- Never will there be any shipping cost, welcome packs, DVD or business cards to buy.
- You don't have to sell products or deal with any sign-up information form as well.

6. How do I get started?

- Just plan the party at your schedule. We provide all the products that day and supply the event. No deposits or ordering of products are involved.
- All seasonal PSCOTT Lifestyle Products are available to you the day of your party. Set the day and time. Experience the fun!
